9 Traditions Martial Arts Academy is honored to host

Grand Master Jason Groff of the Ordóñez Kajukenbo Ohana

October 14th – 16th

Grand Master Jason Groff holds a ninth degree black belt in Kajukenbo and is the Successor of the Ordóñez Kajukenbo Ohana. Grand Master Groff has over 40 years experience in martial arts and is a U.S. Army veteran and former law enforcement officer. He is a Subject Matter Expert on combatives, defensive tactics, and the use of lethal/non-lethal force. As the Director of the American Tactical Trainers Association, GM Groff has instructed numerous Federal and State agencies as well as Fortune 500 companies on anti-terrorism, executive protection, personal protection and self defense.

We are privileged to have Grand Master Groff as our guest during our student promotions on Friday night, October 14th. Pot luck dinner will be served after the promotions.

On Saturday, October 15th, he will conduct two seminars, one for juniors and one for adults. Cost for the seminars is $35.00 for juniors and $50.00 for adults and teens. Black Belts and their families are invited to go to dinner following the seminars. Kajukenbo students will have the privilege of training with Grand Master Groff on Sunday.

We strongly encourage every student to attend the seminars.
