

M.M.A. Fighter's Pummeling of Tai Chi Master Rattles China

Last Modified: 12th May, 2017, 11:31 AM

Brother Steve found this one. Yet again, a "martial arts expert" -this time a delusional "Thunder Tai Chi" guy- is beaten by a no-name MMA-style fighter. The "MMA fighter" is actually around the same age as the Tai Chi guy, by the way and also has been retired from fights for around 16 years do the an injury, I think.

But this time, the fighter hurt the national pride of China because the "Tai Chi master" lost so much "face" - literally and figuratively. The article is worth reading. My Mandarin is useless but I think the "Tai Chi master" may have actually challenged the MMA guy...
