

Possible hack of GM Dechi's email account

Last Modified: 17th March, 2014, 4:11 PM

If you receive a version of this email do not open the link and DEFINITELY do not sign in to view any "document" unless you first get independent confirmation that it is legitimate.

For the record, it does not matter WHO the email is supposed to be from.

Thank you to Ms. Joanna for bringing it to my attention.
