Interesting facts on American Crime

* Russia has almost twice as many judges and magistrates as the United States. Meanwhile, the United States has 8 times as much crime.

* The United States puts 0.7 % of its population in Prison – a vastly higher percentage than any other nation

For comparison, the 2012 census determined there are about 313.9 million people in the United States.

50.8% of those people are female (159.4 million, 2012 numbers), so roughly 637,873 women reported being raped in 2011.

The actual number of sexual assault victims is considered to be much higher according to several sources.
