Camp Details

This is a great opportunity to train with martial artists from various backgrounds and styles. There will be three full days (Thursday, July 24th through Saturday, July 26th) of unmatched martial arts training. All martial artists are welcome at any level, and Black Belt testing by a board of examiners will be available as well. Do not miss this exceptional experience!

For those of you who have not had the opportunity to attend the USMAA training camp events in the past you will be pleasantly surprised! The classes are very informal, you can come and go as you please, and you can switch between the martial arts and law enforcement classes throughout the training camp. Central topics include; Six points of movement to defeat an opponents strength, Reverse Palm techniques and take downs that smoothly move a control subject to the ground, Thigh Lock, Cuffing techniques and standing subjects up, Turning over uncooperative subjects."
