

World Martial Arts Association black belt test

Last Modified: 30th April, 2014, 10:59 AM

These are students of the Chung Do Kwon style * of Tae Kwon Do under “Master” Michael Dealy of the WMAA, apparently.

* Not to be confused with the [Chang Moo Kwan style, which Mr. Ron Jones & I were trained in.]

This is not a hoax; these really are ‘black belts’ in a test.

Ironically, Chung Do Kwan is supposed to be “known for its overall power and emphasis on kicks to the head.”

I would expect my Level 2 white belts to wipe the floor with these guys on demand, but feel free to sign up for classes with “Master” Dealy [here].
